THE BEST OF LATIN BRITAIN

The Latin UK Awards (LUKAS) are the annual awards to recognize the contribution of Britain's one million Latin Americans, Spanish and Portuguese residents. In its second year, the LUKAS became the most media-covered Latin event in UK history. 333,000 votes were cast for nominees in fifty awards, celebrating performers and musicians - from Tegan, Quira, Brazilian and Flamenco, to Pop, Kizomba and Zumba - as well as Latin entertainers, foodies and community leaders.

This year's Latin gala ceremony took place at the iconic Royal Albert Hall in London. In addition to a special live broadcast on national free-to-air TV, the event was also available on YouTube and the event's website. The gala ceremony will be held on Sunday, May 13, 2011 at the Royal Albert Hall, London. The event will be broadcast on national free-to-air TV and will also be available on YouTube and the event's website.

Meanwhile we introduce some of this year's winners:
